Culture and Technological Obsolescence

by Anne Pierce

3:16pm 8.Feb.99.PST

Computer technology has already conquered text, and soon it's going to allow us to save nearly everything around us. As our cultural institutions shift to recording and preserving artifacts in digital form, it's less and less clear what the future holds for all of this material. With enough disk space to record whatever we write, talk about, photograph, and do, how can society plan for its use 10, 500, or 10,000 years from now?

That question is at the heart of a four-day conference starting Sunday in Los Angeles under the sponsorship of the Getty Conservation Institute (mission: to aid in preserving the world's cultural heritage), Getty Information Institute (dedicated to building a global cultural information infrastructure), and the future-focused Long Now Foundation (which promotes the notion of long-term responsibility to the notion of long-term responsibility to
